Dear Mrs. Harrison

Re REPRISALS AGAINST MASS PROTESTS IN SOUTHERN AZERBAIJAN – AN UPDATE ON THE NAMES OF THOSE KILLED AND A NOTE ON UNIDENTIFIED BODIES FOUND IN STREETS

As you know, bloodshed was an outcome of the reprisals inflicted by the Iranian police against the democratic mass protests of Southern Azerbaijanis, which took place at the last week of May 2006. These individuals paid the ultimate price for raising their voice of dissent.

We have compiled a list of names of Southern Azerbaijanis murdered as a result of the authorities' violent actions. Various information sources have been used to collate the names and Azerbaijani websites have even managed to find the photos of some of them.

We hope you will retain these names in your files, bearing a witness when the perpetrators will be held responsible for their actions before the law of law and international authorities.

Our previous letters have highlighted the equally important point that a large number of people have gone missing since these mass protests. The bodies of many of these missing persons have since been found lying in the streets with others still remaining unaccounted for. As more and more bodies appear in the streets of the cities of Southern Azerbaijan, the families of those who are missing are being subjected to untold stress and misery. More traumatic is the experience of the families whose loved ones are murdered by the authority but refuse to hand over the dead bodies for their families without receiving hefty ransoms.

It is almost incredible to anyone that the authorities forbid the families of the victims not to arrange a public obituary for the youths murdered by security agents. The activists have announced that there will be a collective obituary on the 40th day of their deaths, which coincide with the Babek Assembly on 30 June. We hope that you will issue a proactive statement, reminding the authorities for their international obligations and allowing our people to follow up their cultural traditions.

We are enclosing the translations of two statements received from Southern Azerbaijan and published in various Azerbaijani websites giving an account of unidentified dead bodies, together with the source document. We are duly requesting you to send a fact-finding mission to Southern Azerbaijan to shed light to these traumatic developments, which is a gesture for alleviating the miseries experienced by their innocent families. I assure you that you can count on any help within our means.

Yours Sincerely,

Boyuk Resuloglu
